

Thomas L. Chamberlin is a BPA Worldwide Certified Circulation Professional and general publishing expert with over 20 years of experience successfully driving audience development and business growth for major print and digital publications in both the USA and Latin America. His expertise includes circulation development, logistics, distribution, vendor negotiation, cost cutting, due diligence, direct mail, telemarketing, broadcast and online promotions, and bottom-line strategies and solutions. He has held key staff positions with several foremost publishing companies, including Circulation Director at Latin Trade Magazine, Director of Circulation at SOBefiT magazine, General Manager at Megazines Publishing Group, Director of Marketing and Circulation at Tiempos del Mundo, Circulation Director at Zoom Media Group, and Circulation Director at Daily Business Review. BA, University of Michigan. Certified BPA Worldwide, May 1997.