UCR Extension Professional Studies offers the Inland Empire's only ABA-approved Professional Certificate in Paralegal Studies. The program features an intensive curriculum that combines legal theory and analysis with the practical skills and knowledge required of paralegals to perform a range of legal tasks to help lawyers prepare for closings, hearings, trials, and corporate meetings.

Students receive instruction from experienced legal professionals who undergo a rigorous academic approval, and who are required to have direct familiarity working with paralegals. Courses are offered in the evenings, and the program includes internships and opportunities to engage with local and national Paralegal associations.
